

The facts are fun to look at: 271 years in education, 152 years in Christian education, 72 courses taught by these individuals who hold 24 undergrad or Master's degrees from 11 different colleges and universities. But most worthy of noting is ONE; this very diverse group has ONE mission: Provide a God-centered education for young men and women using the Bible and its principles as the foundation for the total curriculum!

